

Parkanaur Forest

Overview

Four miles west of Dungannon, Parkanaur Forest was formally part of the Burgess Estate. The woodland around this forest is made up of a mixture of conifer and broad-leaved woodland. There is also an enclosed herd of white fallow deer and a wildlife pond. Colourful in spring with daffodils and rhododendrons, the walking trails run through oak and beech trees, passing a Victorian garden, wishing well and archway.

Nearest town
Dungannon

Points of interest
White fallow deer
Victorian garden, including rare specimens of trees
Wishing well

Location

Signposted from the A4
Dungannon to Ballygawley
Road

Distance
0.8 miles (1.3km)

Route shape
Linear and looped

Route type
Woodland

Contact
Please visit
www.forestserviceni.gov.uk

Facilities
Orienteering route
Guided tours available
Toilets with disabled access

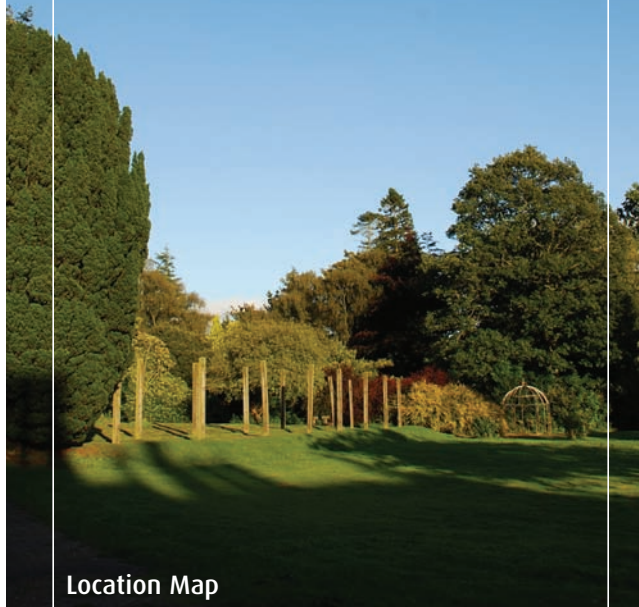

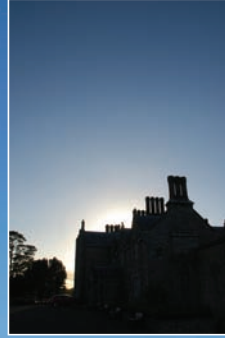

The Blackwater Region walking cards. Card 2/24

www.visitblackwaterregion.com

Blackwater Regional Partnership

Location
Signposted from the A4
Dungannon to Ballygawley Road

Location Map

